EXPRESS IMAGE ACQUIRES SOURCEONE GRAPHICS

St. Paul, MN -January 24, 2017

Express Image, a St. Paul based print and digital solutions provider has acquired SourceOne Graphics effective February 1, 2017. As of this date, SourceOne Graphics will be conducting business as Express Image.

Of the news, Express Image's President, Jeff Sarenpa said: "As Express Image grows we continue to seek out companies that can help us transform and enhance our product and service offerings that will ultimately provide greater value to our customers, employees and suppliers. With SourceOne Graphics, we saw a great opportunity in the product offerings SourceOne provides that will help us do just that."

Of the acquisition, Paul Cowan, Vice President of SourceOne Graphics stated: "We are beyond excited to be joining Express Image, an awesome, fast-growing print and technology company within our industry. We're looking forward to the opportunity to bring our products that we've created to one of the leaders in the print and digital visual communications space and supporting Express Image's efforts to drive growth for all of our customers."

This is an exciting step in Express Image's growth and our commitment to changing and enhancing the world of visual communications with print and digital.

About SourceOne Graphics

In September 1988, Jerry Cowan purchased Fabra Print Inc., located in Minneapolis, which specialized in screen printed labels and decals for original equipment manufacturers(OEM). Three additional companies were acquired throughout the years to collectively provide SourceOne Graphics with the ability to produce a wide variety of custom graphics including labels, decals, posters, banners, transit advertising, trade show displays, POP displays, vehicle graphics and much more. Their main customer base includes OEM's, advertising agencies, healthcare, retail, construction, architectural and real estate markets.
